miniature gridiron.

Mr. O'Rourke's—Mr. to be sure since he has mixed up in the college game—venture was a huge success and some 5,000 people saw the former stars of the football world pummel each other and rell around on the soft dirt floor. Then, too, there was a preliminary game—Mr.

O'Rourke always has preliminaries to his fights—pardon, to his exhibitions, to whet the taste of the spectators for gore.

The difficult one, and J. Warner missed it. Score: Syracuse, 5; New York, or Stracuse, 5; New York, O'Rourke always in favor of Syracuse, should win the championship dealy. It has the stars of the game and they are all in good shape and play together splendidly.

The opening game was between the Monitor Athletic Club, of New York, and the Colonials, of New Jersey. In this struggle the home team was luckier and won out by a score of 17 to 5. miniature gridiron.

The first half was uneventful. J.

arner, who did all of Syracuse's kickhg, and a good part of her playing tarted things off with a long kick. The ball soon went to Syracuse, and then big Bemis Pierce was called back of the line for some long plunges. Syracuse had the ball most of the half, but could not quite get it over, even with the long runs made by Draper, and time was called without either side having bowlers to announce a tournament. The Hariem Navy League will get together completed for a series of games to be-bowled about the first of February. The meeting will be held at the Harheir intention of competing, and it may be that six more will enter.

John Koster, the manager of the Harlem Circle alleys, is out with a challenge to meet any man in the world for any amount, games to be bowled on his own alleys. Mr. Koster bars no one in his challenge and no doubt a series of games will be arranged before the bowlers start for the Indianapolis tournament in February.

The Independents have been rolling in hard luck. Out of twelve games they succeeded in winning only one.

Cris Steinken's score of 258, made on the Pearl alleys, is the high-water mark made there this season.

The Friendships have strong hopes of winning the Harlem Navy tournament. They have a strong team and should at least get a "look in."

S. Rosenberger, of the Independent Bowling Club, is high for the monthly prize offered at Cammann's Morning-side alleys with a score of 278.
